People of the Mountain Valleys.

Messrs. Editors: In your issue of January 12th, you published a very interesting article on the "Mountain Whites," by Bishop Hoss, of Dallas, Texas.

May an humble Presbyterian preacher presume to say a word or two on the same subject, in reference to that article: (and it will condone the offense with you when you remember that all Presbyterian preachers are Bishops).

I would not venture this explanation if it were not for the fear that the Bishop's remarks might hinder, rather than help, the cause in which he is interested, as we all should be.

While not born and reared as he was, in the broad and beautiful valleys of East Tennessee, I have traversed the mountains of Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee and North Carolina for more than 40 years. I have spent much of my time during the last twenty-five years, traveling and preaching over those mountains, and ought to know something of the country and people.

As to the population of that vast mountain region from Pennsylvania to Alabama, a territory as large as the German Empire, the best estimates I have seen placed it two million, six hundred thousand. That was seven years ago. Since then the population has largely increased. Of this the good Bishop says:

"At least three-fourths or four-fifths are well fed, well clothed, well housed and reasonably well educated and evangelized." Doubtless this is true of the broad valleys and towns he names, which do not contain half this population; but so far as my observation extends, it is far from the truth concerning the great mass of the mountaineers. Indeed the inhabitants of Knoxville, Chattanooga, Bristol and the valleys, are not mountaineers. Few of them ever lived in the mountains.

My own estimate is that one-third of all the people living in the mountains are neither well fed, nor well clothed, well housed nor well educated and evangelized. If he could see the reports of 80 mission teachers and preachers of our Society, laboring in all these states he would learn.

And next to the Cumberlands of Kentucky, the Tennessee mountains are probably the most needy and neglected. Tens of thousands of these poor people are living beyond all means of grace or hopes of glory. Tens of thousands never saw a church or heard a sermon they could understand.

But admitting the Bishop's estimate of two hundred and fifty thousand of such people without the gospel—he calls them "debased and besotted souls," to which I enter my earnest protest. They are neither debased nor besotted. Such people may be found, as he says, in the slums of cities and within reach of churches and preachers, but not in the mountains. But admitting that only 250,000 were without the gospel. A quarter of a million souls, our own countrymen, our neighbors, our kith and kin. Children of the Covenanters and Huguenots, perishing at the doors for the Bread of Life! Is it not a sin and shame? A quarter of a million of "excellent citizens" of honesty, courage and hospitality," as the Periodic Pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a most remarkable remedy for the relief of periodic pains, backache, nervous or sick headache, or any of the distressing aches and pains that cause women so much suffering.

As pain is weakening, and leaves the system in an exhausted condition, it is wrong to suffer a moment longer than necessary, and you should take the Anti-Pain Pills on first indication of an attack.

If taken as directed you may have entire confidence in their effectiveness, as well as in the fact that they will leave no disagreeable after-effects.

They contain no morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine or other dangerous drugs.

"For a long time I have suffered greatly with spells of backache, that seem almost more than I can endure. These attacks come on every month, and last two or three days. I have never been able to get anything that would give me much relief until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they always relieve me in a short time. My sister, who suffers the same way, has used them with the same results." MISS PARK, 721 S. Michigan St., South Bend, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit you. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Bishop calls them. All this vast company of a quarter of a million souls, living and dying almost in sight of us, in this twentieth century of Christianity, without a knowledge of Christ or a hope of salvation. If we kept our peace, the stones should cry out against us.

Whether a quarter of a million or a million and a quarter, our duty is plain. The command is still "Go, preach the Gospel to every creature." The power of the Omnipotent is behind that word.

We must go, or be judged for not going.

"There comes a time in the future near,

When this life has passed away,

When these needy ones will stand with me

In the light of the Judgment Day.

When the angel reads from the Book of Life,

My deeds for that ureat review.

If the Lord should speak and accuse me

there,

I wonder what I should do?

A son of man, with his angels fair,

Will sit on the great white throne;

And out of the million gathered there.

He will know and claim His own.

If He says to me, those words I've read

In that Book so old and true,

"Inasmuch as ye did it not to these,"

I wonder what I should do?"

—[Rev. E. O. Guerrant in Southern Presbyterianian.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Young, daughters and sons, of this place who were burned out in the old Maple property and for whom THE HERALD appealed last week, are very grateful to the people of Hazel Green, for their kindness, and Mrs. Young requests us to say that she shall ever remember those who have so kindly assisted her, and prays that misfortune may never visit them. But if it does she hopes they will have as good friends as they have provided to her.

ONE FULL QUART OF WHISKEY FREE

We know the meaning of words and will do as we say. We claim to be the lowest-priced Whiskey House and the Largest Mail Order Whiskey Concern in the South. All the North Carolina Whiskey we sell is good—there's no bad. People here wouldn't believe it if they knew how—they are too honest. Most whiskey sellers are noted for mixing, bottling and watering. We sell more genuine old whiskey and less water than any known competitor. "Casper's 11 Year Old" Whiskey is a liquid gold. It's made by honest people in the mountains of North Carolina, in old-style copper stills, just as it was made by our grandfathers. First-rate whiskey is sold at $5.00 to $6.00 per gallon, but it's not any better than "Casper's 11 Year Old." It must please or we will buy it back. We have a capital of $200,000, and the Peoples National Bank and the Piedmont Savings Bank of this city will tell you our word is good. To introduce this old, honest whiskey, we offer four Full Quarts of "Casper's 11 Year Old"—two sample bottles, one in one 11 year old, a cork, screw and a drinking glass—all for $2.95. If $5.00 is sent we will double the above and put in free One Full Quart Extra. We have some of this whiskey only 7 years old, and will send three-gallon keg for $10 or will furnish twenty full quart bottles on receipt of $11 and give free cork-screws, drinking glasses and samples, making this whiskey cost less than $1.50 per gallon delivered. We ship in plain boxes with no marks to indicate contents, and "Freight all Express." Buyers West of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska and Dakota must add 50 cents per quart extra.

LACONIC LINKS.

The United States Senate is working hard in keeping itself doing nothing.

Colorado had to have a great religious revival before it could get its mind off the election frauds.

It is said that Johann Hoch is losing his nerve. He has nothing left except his "charming beauty."

Henry Clews, the Wall street bull, says, money is increasing too fast. We imagine Henry is setting a hook for suckers.

Senator Dolliver of Iowa thinks "mud and civilization" go together. It seems as though civilization sometimes runs into mud.

The latest from Russia is that they will mount guns on automobiles. It is a sheer waste to shoot a man after the auto has run over him.

The State of Texas doesn't have a great many woes but of late has been visited with a pair of twins of this character. She is suffering from a blizzard and Rockefellerism.

Representative Butler, of Pennsylvania, is afraid the Japs will take the Philippines from us. Many others are afraid we will have to put a premium on them to shove them off.

The prosecuting attorney in charge of Senator Mitchell's case is emphasizing the fact that the Senator received his first political lessons from the Pennsylvania Republican school.

The reform ministers of Philadelphia assert that they have discovered a vice trust in that city. They are probably convinced now that they can find any kind of trusts except trust in God.

Senator Bacon, of Georgia, has called attention to the fact that while several Senators have been indicted none of them are Democrats. The grafters are all in the Republican party somehow.

Hon. John Sharp Williams thinks the Republicans are turning to Democrats. Well, we are glad to learn this, but we hope John will subject them to a good bath before admitting them to fellowship.

The New York 400 is showing evidence of improvement. A daughter of one of them recently eloped with a coachman, which is far preferable to marrying a no-count Count. Col. Watterson's severe rebuke is working pretty good during his absence.

Speaker Cannon has unfortunately put himself in the way of admitting the territories. We didn't think the speaker was so mean as to pull them off the water wagon and drive them to the trough.

The whole nation joins Indiana in mourning the demise of one of her most distinguished sons, Gen. Lew Wallace, the famous author of Ben-Hur. Gen. Wallace won immortal fame in war, literature and statesmanship.

The Wall street stock market shows that railroad stock is still increasing in value notwithstanding the intention of Congress to pass the rebate bill. The railroads have unflinching confidence in the "block system" of the Senate.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by all druggists at 50c. a bottle.

Letter From Indian Territory.

VINTA, IND. TER., Feb. 12.
Spencer Cooper, Editor HERALD.
Dear Sir and Friend: As I am in the northeastern part of Indian Territory, 120 miles northeast of Chandler, O. T., where I have been located for the past four years. I am working for the Pioneer Telegraph and Telephone Co., and was sent here to help rebuild their exchange here, as the sleet storm of the night of Jan. 10, destroyed it, and did great damage to telephone and telegraph lines throughout this section. However it was only a few days until all the lines were in working order. The snow here is 12 inches deep and the thermometer registers zero, a record never before known in this country.

The sleet storm did not reach over Oklahoma, but the snowstorm that followed covered it completely. This is a fine country and very fertile in this section.

Wishing THE HERALD and editor success, I am, respectfully, &c.,

A Lesson In The Market. Young housekeepers will discover a fund of information in the papers of The Delineator by Isabel Gordon Curtis under the title "The Making of a Housewife" giving in the March number a lesson in the meat market. The hints are practical and helpful. Other topics of domestic interest, especially during the Lenten season, are "Attractiveness for Lenten Days," illustrating and describing a number of delicate ways of preparing fish, and a variety of recipes under the headings "Fruit and Vegetable Salads," "Godfish Variations," and "Eggs—from a Hygienic Standpoint."
